

LIFE AFTER THE 2001 STAGG BOWL

The story of three former Bridgewater football starters becoming doctors

BRAD - Free Safety to Psychiatry

Medical School:

Virginia College of Osteopathic Medicine (VA Tech)

Residency:

Metrohealth Medical Center (Cleveland, Ohio)

“I am very happy with my experience and memories at Bridgewater. The coaching staff, administration, and faculty gave me the utmost support for success on the field and in my career plans.”

~Brad

SEAN - Kicker to Emergency Medicine

Medical School:

Eastern Virginia Medical School

Residency:

Geisinger Medical Center (Danville, Pa.)

“The skills I learned as a team player at Bridgewater, especially how to work together with people you may not get along with, have served me well in taking care of patients as a part of the medical team.”

~Sean

MATT - Center to Cardiology

Medical School:

University of Virginia School of Medicine

Residency:

University of Virginia Health System

“I received a great medical education at the University of Virginia, and Bridgewater prepared me well. I want you to know that I used the lessons we learned on the football field everyday.”

~Matt
