

Ripples Society Medal – nominee criteria

The principles and procedures to be used in selecting a recipient of a Ripples Society Medal are as follows.

1. loyal devotion to Bridgewater College
2. vocational and/or professional achievement
3. humanitarian activities

In the consideration of “guiding principles,” current activities should receive priority. It is intended to make this award available to persons who have not received the Distinguished Alumnus award.

One or more alumni of Bridgewater College, Blue Ridge College, Daleville College and Hebron Seminary of 50 or more years ago may be awarded the Ripples Society Medal each year.

Nominations shall be submitted to the Alumni Office for review by the Ripples Society President, the Alumni Director and the President of the College. This review committee will make nominations to the Ripples Society Executive Committee. The Executive Committee will submit the name(s) to a ballot by the Alumni Association Board of Directors.

All awards will be made at the Ripples Society spring banquet.
