Fifty Weeks, Fifty States

HARRISONBURG

In 2008, Daniel Seddiqui embarked on a 50-week journey, to work a job in each of the 50 states.

Throughout his travels, Seddiqui was a border patrol agent in Arizona, a rodeo announcer in South Dakota, a model in North Carolina and a gardener at Monticello, to name a few.

He also chronicled his adventures in a book called "50 Jobs in 50 States: One Man's Journey of Discovery Across America."

Now the 2005 University of Southern California graduate will share his experiences tonight at 7 p.m. in Cole Hall at Bridgewater College.

The lecture, part of the college's Family Weekend activities, is free and open to the public.
